

Clean & Safe / Hreint og öruggt

Terms and conditions:

1. Only companies that have met the requirements of the project Clean & Safe / Hreint og öruggt may identify themselves with its logo
2. The use and publication of the logo is the responsibility of each company.
3. Companies that participate in the project and meet all its requirements will be especially identified on ferdalag.is, visiticeland.com and on the websites of the regional marketing offices in Iceland.
4. The Icelandic Tourist Board does not supervise participating companies as the project is a self-assessment performed by each company.
5. The Icelandic Tourist Board is not responsible if companies do not comply with the official infection prevention rules or the relevant requirements in the self-assessment.
6. The Icelandic Tourist Board is not responsible if an infection occurs in a company that participates in the project.
7. Customers can give comments, to the Icelandic Tourist Board, on the performance of participating companies, if they want to give positive feedback or point out what can be done better. The company in question will receive a copy of all comments that may be received. The Icelandic Tourist Board reserves the right to remove the Clean & Safe logo from the company's registration area on ferdalag.is and visiticeland.com if the company does not respond quickly and well to negative comments that might be received.
8. The Icelandic Tourist Board reserves the right to review the self-assessment and logo if necessary. The Icelandic Tourist Board will notify participating companies about changes that might be made. Participants are responsible for implementing changes and for following the instructions of the Icelandic Tourist Board.
9. The Clean & Safe logo is valid until the end of 2022, cf. year on logo.

By accepting the above terms, the company agrees to meet the requirements for participation set by the Icelandic Tourist Board in the Clean & Safe project.
